

A YOUNG METHOD.

Crucial and tender work is compared to young in dental methods, and only with a short time has it been perfected and become recognized for real value. It is especially difficult work calling for exact understanding of the science and long practice to make perfect. The old-fashioned dentist would rather advise against it than attempt it. We would rather perform such expert work than any we know, because we know how to do it, and it may be made—and how to make them perfect.

A COFFEE EXPERIMENT.

Not Likely to Be Repeated.

"The work of a newspaper correspondent involves constant thought and study, with consequent brain and nerve weariness. It may interest you to know of my experience with coffee.

"Some years ago I was compelled to give it up, and after a few years' abstinence started its use again, at breakfast only. Within a few weeks I was compelled to abandon it, as I became nearly paralyzed.

"During the forenoon of each day my arms and wrists were so benumbed that I could use them with difficulty. Alarming symptoms began to develop which my physician informed me were the forerunners of apoplexy. Coffee was therefore forewarned. Milk, of which I was very fond, made me intolerably drowsy and stupid.

"About two years ago my attention was called to Postum Cereal Food Coffee, and a trial was made, believing that if it proved half as valuable as claimed it would be of great advantage to me. On the first trial it tasted rather insipid to our strong-coffee-loving family, but a little freer use of Postum and longer boiling produced a delicious drink, and within a short time the members of the family, one and all, had become ardent advocates of Postum Food Coffee.

"In my own case it has worked wonders. I work more constantly than ever, but my general health is better than at any time in my life, and the symptoms of nervous trouble have wholly disappeared. About eight months ago I made one more trial of coffee, reducing it with nearly half milk. The experiment lasted four or five days, and is not likely to be repeated. The nervous suffering that followed was indescribable, and I did not recover from its effects for nearly two weeks.

"Nearly all of our neighbors are now using Postum Food Coffee, and it is used almost exclusively by the large Sanitarium in our city." A. Maynard Barbour, Bailey Block, Helena, Mont.

Postum is sold by all first-class grocers, and made by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., at their factory, Battle Creek, Mich.

No doubt holders of Cuban bonds are less happy at Spain's repudiation of them than the Cubans are at having no Spanish bonds on their hands.

It is reputed, and it is probably untrue, that the wife of the president of the Transvaal republic not only does her own cooking, makes her own beds and waits on the table, passing the dishes even at state dinners, but that she often takes a hand at the family washing. Although her famous husband has a capital of some

manoeuvring" of Americans by a Bo-

$25,000,000, she boasts that they have never lived beyond their "coffee money." $2,000 a year, allowed them by the government.

Senator Platt's leaning towards

Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, of

New York, for the second place on the ticket with McKinley looks as if the senator's old dislike for the president was cropping out again, or else he is very sure of republican success with any ticket that may be named.

The right of one state to impress the citizens of another into its armies and navies has been disputed by the United States from the beginning of their history. Although we were a comparatively weak nation in 1812,

we challenged the power of Great Britain in preference to submitting to the forcible enlistment of American sailors into the British service, and the principle we then contended for has been adopted into the law of nations. Germany and the other military powers of Europe have acknowledged the legality of the principle in the case of former subjects who have become naturalized

Americans, even when reasonable grounds for suspicion existed that the latter expatriated themselves mainly for the purpose of escaping military service. The conscription of a bona fide citizen of the United States by Germany or by any other foreign authority would be resisted with all the force at our command.

The South African republic can claim

family washing. Although her famous husband has a capital of some

manoeuvring" of Americans by a Bo-

field cornet to fight in the Transvaal army, or to hew wood and draw water for the same, could not and would not be permitted. The dignity of American citizenship must be maintained as strenuously in the Transvaal as anywhere else.

HOW FARMERS ARE HELPED.

Some facts furnished from Denmark give a striking illustration of what can be accomplished through well developed and intelligent effort. That country has not been commonly regarded as one of great agricultural possibilities. Its farm lands up to half a century ago were of little value, as were its farm products. But a wise system of agricultural training was instituted. The Philadelphia Press tells the result:

"By education, by careful cultivation, and by establishing model government dairies, which have been imitated by farmers, a trade has been built up in butter which amounted last year to $35,000,000 with England alone. Formerly Denmark exported her corn; now the export of bacon and hams exceeds 500,000 tons a year, simply because co-operative curing factories have been established managed by farmers, at which the hogs of a region are killed and dressed with great care. As a result the barren sand dunes, which once supported a semi-starving population, vies in its pork products with our richest western prairie land. The Danish egg trade was non-existent a generation ago; farmers organized, got aid from the government, sent traveling lecturers through the country, and in time a co-operative union was formed by 20,000 members, which collects the eggs, marks and sorts them into classes according to size. Consequently, England alone receives $3,500,000 worth of eggs in a year.

"In the ten years from 1887 to 1897 the exports of butter increased from 48,000,000 pounds to 102,000,000 pounds; of eggs from 546,000 score to 12,227,000; meat products from 42,423 pounds to 137,666. As the character of these meat products has been steadily improving, while meat has fallen in the rest of the world, the value in Denmark has risen from $3,716,000 to $14,444,000. In other words, while the quantity has about tripled, the value has more than quadrupled. In this country, where less pains are taken in the preparation of meat, the reverse has taken place. Quantity has grown faster than value.

"This growth, which has converted Denmark from one of the poorest countries in the world, agriculturally, to one of the richest, is solely due to intelligent government aid and agricultural education, supplemented by effective and intelligent co-operation among farmers."

Direct government aid of the kind referred to would be undesirable in this country, but the American farmer by similar energy and co-operation could accomplish equally satisfactory results.

A DEMOCRAT'S VIEW OF IT

[Chicago Times-Herald.]

"My duty as an American citizen commands my support of the country's president at this juncture," said former Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, at the Great Northern hotel yesterday afternoon. "When he said in his Pittsburgh speech that the Philippines were just as much American soil as were Texas or Alaska he spoke the truth. The islands are ours by title of treaty.

ROBERT E. PATTISON

and we have no title to Louisiana or Alaska except that confirmed by treaty. As they are ours, we are bound to see them pacified, to set up law and order in their midst. This is our first duty, it is a national duty, and democrats and republicans alike are bound to help fulfill that duty. The immediate object confronting us is the reduction of the Philippines to order, and it is vain as it is wrong to speculate about what we shall do with them or what sort of government we shall set up or how much self-government we shall extend to the natives until we have solved the immediate question. To take trouble about those ultimate matters when an immediate matter threatens is as impractical as it is un-American."

The average duration of yellow fever is a week, but in graver cases the attack may be precipitate and prove speedily fatal.

DEED OF AN INSANE MOTHER.

ATTEMPTED TO MURDER THREE CHILDREN.

Two Are Dead—Gave Them Morphine Then Slashed Her Own Wrists and Turned on the Gas.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Clara Rheiner, aged thirty-four, of 109 Catherine street, last night attempted to murder her three children and commit suicide. She gave the children morphine, cut her own wrists and then turned on the gas in the room they were in. When discovered two of the children, Harold, aged three, and the baby, aged fourteen months, were dead. By hard work the eldest child, Elmer, who was seven years of age, and Mrs. Rheiner were resuscitated. Mrs. Rheiner failed to cut the arteries in her wrists and the physicians at St. Mary's hospital say she will recover. The family was discovered by Mrs. Rheiner's two brothers, who had met her husband on the street and from his peculiar actions imagined the couple had had some trouble. They went up to the house to investigate and found them all in one room which was full of gas. Mrs. Rheiner made a statement to the officers admitting killing the children and said she wished she was with them.

She confessed to having had domestic troubles, but stated that they were not entirely responsible for her deed. It is believed that Mrs. Rheiner is insane.

Her husband has not been found since the crime was discovered and she says that he has not been at home for three days.

HUMANE SOCIETY STOPS FAD.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—The Humane society of Connecticut threatened to arrest a wealthy New Yorker yesterday if he did not substitute long stockings for the fashionable low kilts worn by his daughter, eight years old. Attorney Moyle, the society's agent, had his attention called to the little girl, who had on the fashionable short stockings that are worn by children that reach about an inch above her shoes, the rest of her legs being exposed to the cold September wind. The parents of the girl, George F. Fleuret and wife, wealthy New Yorkers, stopping with their maid at a local hotel, were threatened with arrest by the attorney if they did not provide long warm stockings for the child. FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 28.—At yesterday's session of the Michigan Municipal league the question of public lighting and the general municipal ownership of public utilities was discussed and resolutions were passed favoring municipal ownership. After reciting the decision of the supreme court on the McLeod law the resolutions say: "We favor the submission to the people of this state at the earliest possible time the question of an amendment to the constitution which will permit and allow every city to run, own and operate all of its public utilities, and we hereby request the governor and legislature to prepare and submit such proposed amendments at the first election after the convening of the legislature."

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The Samoan situation is regarded by officials as much more menacing, because of the numerous reports, particularly those from German sources, that the Mataafa natives are growing restive and are being incited to another rebellion. There has been no official verification of these reports, but officials acquainted with affairs there and in possession of the latest information credit the reports and say there are indications that further trouble is brewing.

NATION'S MISSION

JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN
TALKS OF EXPANSION.

OUR DUTY IN THE PHILIPPINES

GOOD GOVERNMENT MUST BE GIVEN THE ISLANDS.

PURPOSES OF COLONIZATION

IT IS TO LIFT UP LOWLY AND HELPLESS PEOPLES.

Ithica, N. Y., Sept. 28.—President Jacob G. Schurman, in his address at the opening of the scholastic year of Cornell university today, spoke at considerable length on the subject of national expansion. Mr. Schurman was president of the commission sent to the Philippine islands to investigate the subject of civil government of the archipelago. At the outset Mr. Schurman referred to his address of last year, when he answered negatively the inquiry, "Shall we take the Philippine islands from Spain?"

His opinions, he said, brought upon him no little condemnation, but the rapid march of events rendered it unnecessary to consider whether these opinions were sound or not.

The treaty-making power of the United States, backed, he admitted, by an overwhelming public opinion, irrespective of party, took the Philippine islands from Spain. Some people were still discussing the theoretic expediency of expansion.

THE ONLY QUESTION.

This had not been an open question since last winter. The only question today open was this:

JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN.

"The United States having taken the Philippine islands from Spain, what shall be done with them?"

This grave issue must be decided by the president and congress. With them he thought it could be left in the confident expectation that a wise solution would be reached. He invited attention to some observations on the general subject of national expansion.

A difference between the expansion of the United States and that of Great Britain came prominently into view when our new states were compared with dependencies like India. The population of the United States was homogeneous, that of India indescribably heterogeneous. The Americans ruled themselves, whether in New York or Oregon; the alien and multitudinous races of India could be held together only by a strong foreign hand. America had grown from within outwards; England had enlarged herself by accretion.

PHASE OF NEW EXPANSION.

Our assumption of sovereignty over the Philippine islands was altogether unlike the previous phases of our national expansion. He pointed out that whereas in the development of the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific practically uninhabited territories were found; the Philippine islands were already well peopled with Malaysians, who had long made it their home, and resented the intrusion of other races, and to whom the physical environment was far better adapted than it was to white men.

There are those who speak of the Philippine islands as our possessions and calmly conclude we may do what we like with them.

This was too barbarous to be taken seriously; it was not callousness of heart, it was only muddle-headedness.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY.

The terms "ownership" and "possession" were a barbarous survival when applied to any relation between one people and another. The sovereign power owned nothing, but there is something it owed. It was charged with the responsibility of government. Our relations with the Philippines would be misrepresented so long as we retained the fatal confusion of government and property.

Continuing, Mr. Schurman said: "We simply possess, in virtue of the treaty of Paris, the right to govern or aid in governing the people of the Philippine islands. Unhappily, we have not got beyond the first function of government—the suppression of insurrection and the establishment of peace and order."

NOT A QUESTION OF PROFIT.
There was, said President Schurman, no instance in history of the successful government of a colony where profit to the parent state or its citizens had been a leading consideration.

On the other hand there were many examples of distress and rebellion from such unworthy greed and exploitation.

"Let a nation," he said, "seek to enrich itself or its citizens at the expense of its colonists and it impoverishes all. But let a nation in all its dealings with its colonies take as its sole criterion of judgment and standard of conduct the welfare of the colonists and it will result, as history everywhere demonstrates, that the enriched dependencies become the most profitable traders with the ruling country."

THE HIGHEST PURPOSES.

President Schurman said that the initiative and the directing power belong to the sovereign nation and must be exercised by higher purposes. A few will suffice. Of course, there must be one responsible head. But with an organizing genius at the helm it was simply astonishing how much could be got out of the natives. Continuing he said:

"I was often asked in the Philippines if our civil service was better than that of Spain. Here is a point where the Filipinos suspect and fear us. We must allay their anxiety and suspicion by a splendid Philippine civil service. I believe we shall. It is absolutely necessary."

"But there will be no harder task in connection with our government of the archipelago. I repeat, however, that the success of our administration in the Philippines will depend upon the men we send out to conduct it much more than upon acts of congress or any other circumstance."

PURPOSE OF COLONIZATION.

In conclusion Mr. Schurman said:

"What is the end of colonization?"

Why should we extend our sovereignty over remote countries and alien peoples? I answer that only the justifiable object of such expansion is the establishment of good government in the territory annexed, the elevation of its people in civilization, and the training of them in progressive self-government with a view to ultimate independence whether they are partisans in it or separated from the sovereign state. As the end of the moral being is perfection, and the end of the economic society is wealth, so the end of the political community is independence. In the divine creation of the race no people can be permanently kept in a state of subjection, or even dependent upon, another people. Of all colonizing nations England is the only one which has realized this great principle, and it took a successful rebellion in her first empire to impress the truth even upon England.

THE NATION'S MISSION.

"In the Philippine Islands our own mission is to educate and elevate the Filipinos and aid them in governing themselves. We shall not adopt the policy of scuttling, nor, although American sovereignty must be established even by force, shall we ever dream of the policy of extermination. Not oppression, nor yet abandonment and desertion; not these, but honest and fraternal co-operation with the Filipinos for the establishment of a just and stable government of the natives who shall have ever-increasing participation in proportion to the development of their political capacities, the growth of their political experience, the progress of the masses in education and civilization and the evolution of the ideas which will be nourished by developing the habit of common action, the improvement of the means of communication, the freer intermingling of the tribes and races and hearty native co-operation with the Americans whose best political traditions are but the realization of the dearest ideals of the Filipino peoples."

FUNSTON TALKS OF WAR.

Fort Scott, Kan., Sept. 28.—General Frederick Funston, formerly colonel of the Twentieth Kansas volunteers, now en route home from Manila, in a letter received by a friend here today predicts that the war in the Philippine islands will have been ended by spring. General Funston says: "I would really like to see the war through to the finish, not for the position I hold, but because my fighting blood is up. I am confident that by spring it will be over. The indications are that a very aggressive campaign will be inaugurated this fall and they will have what they lacked before, 3,000 cavalry, absolutely indispensable in a guerrilla war. Lord, wouldn't I like to command a cavalry brigade. I have never for a minute had any qualms as to the justice of this war. We are right and they are wrong. I hope that when they are conquered they will be made to feel for many years the iron hand of military rule. The only kind for which they are suited. I think the islands a most valuable acquisition. Their natural resources are almost beyond computation. From a strictly money standpoint they are 'reat.'"

BUMPS' GREAT RECORD.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28.—C. K. G. Billings' great pacer Bumps, 2:04 1/4, pulled a wagon a mile Wednesday in the sensational time of 2:03 1/4 and shattered all wagon records to smithereens. Up until Wednesday Joe Patchen's wagon record of 2:04 1/4 was the world's record, but Bumps eclipsed that record by a full second and a half and he also beat his harness record of 2:04 1/4, made to sulky a year ago. He was driven by W. L. now, trainer for the Forest City farm of Cleveland, Ohio.

Bumps scored away alone and stepped the first quarter in 0:30, and was down to the half in just 1:00. Here two runners as prompters accompanied the great pacer the rest of the trip. The third quarter was paced in 0:31 and the mile in 2:03 1/4. What makes this performance all the more meritorious for the Chicago pacer is that the temperature was not of the record-breaking kind, as evidenced by the time made in all the class races. Bumps, some two weeks ago, was driven a mile at Terre Haute, Ind., to a wagon by his owner, C. K. G. Billings, one of Chicago's millionaires, in 2:06 1/4, and two days later George Starr drove him a mile

Bradley, Chicago's new third baseman, accepted twelve chances in the first game yesterday without an error. He also made a two-bagger and a three-bagger.

Marty Bergen has again left the Boston without leave. He hurt his hand and without saying a word packed his grip and returned to North Brookfield.

Captain Truby has recommended Outfielders Wright and Connor and Pitcher Carney to Jimmy Manning, of Kansas City.

One by one the players are leaving for their homes. Sample has left for Freeport, Ill., where he will be employed this winter.

Grand Rapids Press: "Torreyson says he will be back in Grand Rapids next year with an Inter-State team. Not if Grand Rapids sees him first. Torreyson also said the same thing about Columbus and Springfield."

Billy Meyer started for New Castle Wednesday afternoon and arrived in the Quaker city at 11 o'clock this morning. The league meeting will be held this evening, at which time President Power's successor will be chosen.

The Concordias would like a game with a good amateur team of the city for Saturday, September 30. Only organized clubs need accept. Batting order must be in before Saturday morning. Address, C. W. Baer, manager.

"Chick" Stahl scored four runs against Washington yesterday without making a hit. "Chick" also stole one base. He is playing all the fine points of the game this season and does not depend alone on his bat to make a great player of himself.

The Fort Waynes have made arrangements to play three more games with the South Bend Greens next Saturday, Sunday and Monday in South Bend. The Fort Wayne players tell that South Bend has a strong amateur team and they do not anticipate easy victories.

BUMPS' GREAT RECORD.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28.—C. K. G. Billings' great pacer Bumps, 2:04 1/4, pulled a wagon a mile Wednesday in the sensational time of 2:03 1/4 and shattered all wagon records to smithereens. Up until Wednesday Joe Patchen's wagon record of 2:04 1/4 was the world's record, but Bumps eclipsed that record by a full second and a half and he also beat his harness record of 2:04 1/4, made to sulky a year ago. The third quarter was paced in 0:31 and the mile in 2:03 1/4. What makes this performance all the more meritorious for the Chicago pacer is that the temperature was not of the record-breaking kind, as evidenced by the time made in all the class races. Bumps, some two weeks ago, was driven a mile at Terre Haute, Ind., to a wagon by his owner, C. K. G. Billings, one of Chicago's millionaires, in 2:06 1/4, and two days later George Starr drove him a mile in 2:06 1/4. He started to beat that record.

M'COY BEAT M'COORMICK.

New York, Sept. 28.—Four weeks ago the news came from Chicago that Kid McCoy, the noted middle-weight pugilist, had been knocked out in the second round by Jack McCormick, of Philadelphia, a fourth-rate heavy-weight. McCoy claimed that it was a lucky punch that put him out.

Last night at the Lenox Athletic club, in the presence of 4,000 persons, McCoy and McCormick met again to decide the supremacy. The result was just what the sports looked for. McCoy made his rival look like an amateur. He knocked him down repeatedly and in the eighth round McCormick, hopelessly beaten, dropped to the floor without being hit. That was an infringement of the rules and McCormick was promptly disqualified.

McCoy did not have to work very hard, but as his opponent was merely a rough slugger he was cautious until it appeared to him that the fight was his.

McCormick apparently had no chance when he came out of his corner for the eighth round. But he began with the old rushes, head down. He was depending on a lucky punch. McCoy rushed him in turn and the big Quaker went down again for a count.

"If you fall again without a blow," said the referee to McCormick, "I'll stop you."

"I can't help it," gasped Jack. Then McCoy proceeded to make a chopping block out of McCormick, whose face was covered with blood from half a dozen cuts. McCoy knocked him down twice more and then, as McCormick dropped without receiving a blow, the referee ruled him out and declared McCoy the winner. The time of the round was 2:51. McCormick was swiftly saved from a sure knockout, as McCoy had him hopelessly beaten.

HAD A BUSY DAY.

take precedence over Admiral Sampson.

As the tug left the New York for the Olympia the flagship fired a major general's salute.

DEWEY WELCOMES MILES.

Admiral Dewey, Captain Lamberton and Flag Lieutenant Brumby received the committee. Admiral Dewey grasped the hand of Major General Miles as he stepped aboard and said:

"Am glad to see you, general."

The admiral took the committee into his cabin, the committee remaining on board three quarters of an hour.

DEWEY'S OLD FRIEND.

When the committee from Washington reached the Olympia each member of the party was cordially greeted by Admiral Dewey, but the warmest hand clasp and heartiest greeting were for the admiral's life-long friend, Senator Redfield Proctor, of Vermont. The admiral presented each of the visitors to Captain Lamberton and then all went to the admiral's cabin, where the committee presented the program for the Washington celebration, and the admiral expressed his entire satisfaction with it. Mr. Proctor presented an invitation to a dinner by the president and Admiral Dewey accepted it.

FIRST ADMIRAL'S FLAG.

Commander George W. Baird, who sailed with Farragut and Dewey in the gulf squadron in 1861 unrolled a package which he had carefully guarded all the way to the Olympia, and displayed a faded blue admiral's ensign upon which were stitched four white stars. He said to Admiral Dewey:

"Admiral, I wish to present to you the first admiral's flag ever 'broken out' in the navy of this country. That grand old admiral whose name and memory all so reverence, first hoisted this ensign upon the good ship Hartford, before New Orleans, and afterwards upon the Franklin, and since it came down from that masthead it has never been whipped by the wind or worn by the elements. You, the worthy successor of that great admiral whose tactics you so successfully followed a short while ago, I deem the proper person for Farragut's mantle to fall upon."

This flag was made by quartermaster Knowles out of a blue "number" flag when Farragut was first made a rear admiral. Two white stars were sewed on it. When Farragut was made an admiral two more white stars were sewed on it. Farragut flew this flag on the Hartford at New Orleans and afterwards in the Mediterranean.

TEARS IN THE HERO'S EYES.

Admiral Dewey was deeply affected and tears were in his eyes as he gazed at the souvenir. It was several moments before he could find his voice. Finally he said: "I'll fly it—I'll fly it in the parade—I'll fly it always—and when I strike my admiral's flag this will be the flag I shall strike."

This was the most impressive scene that has occurred on the Olympia

since her arrival in this port, and for some time no one spoke. The silence was broken by Dewey, who called to his Chinese steward and ordered a case of champagne. The Washingtonians remained on board chatting with the admiral for an hour. A portion of the committee left for Washington at 3:30 o'clock.

Ensign E. Delagorges, of the Royal Greek navy, was presented to Admiral Dewey by W. B. Bailey, chief engineer of the New York. The junior officers of the New York were presented at the same time by Captain Chadwick.

G. A. R. VETERANS TO MARCH.

A committee of one hundred citizens has subscribed sufficient money to defray the expenses of a band to head the civil war veterans in the land parade.

This organization will be headed by General Howard and its ranks will be open to any credited veteran. General Howard announces that over 1,000 men will be in line. General Howard said today that Commander-in-Chief Kay has exceeded his authority when he issued an order saying that G. A. R. men should not march as individuals in the Dewey land parade. General Howard said: "Kay is not over me, but if he were I would consider that the order that G. A. R. men should not march as individuals in the parade counted for little, as he entirely exceeded his authority in issuing it. General Roe has assigned us a place for 1,200 men in the parade and I have sent him a list of organizations which are to fill the space."

BIG FLORAL HORSESHOE.

A magnificent floral piece, shaped like a horseshoe, nine feet high, embracing the seal of Massachusetts, was presented to Admiral Dewey today in the name of the commonwealth of the state by William A. Twombly, of Boston.

Rear Admiral Philip said today that the Olympia will probably be saluted on arrival at Grant's tomb, and that the Sandy Hook, carrying the mayor and party, would be side by side with the flagship.

The convicts in the city prison have published a special Dewey edition of Prison Forum, which will be presented to the admiral with their compliments. They will rest from prison labor tomorrow and Saturday.

There will be at least 300 life savers along the river front tomorrow in readiness to assist in case of accident.

ROSEVELT'S VISIT.

New York Sept. 28.—Admiral Dewey and his officers and men on the Olympia were formally welcomed to the state of New York this afternoon by Governor Roosevelt and the chief officers of the van guard of the state who went down the bay on Gen. Francis V. Green's yacht Wild Duck. Besides Governor Roosevelt there were among the welcoming party other men whose grasps of the admiral's hand were something more than formal. Gen. Francis V. Green, who went with the governor, is a Manila campaigner, and for the first time since the admiral left the harbor of Manila he shook hands with some of the captains who commanded vessels in his squadron on May 1, 1898.

These were Captain Wildes, of the Boston; Captain Dyer, of the Baltimore; Captain Wood, of the Petrel; Captain Walker, of the Concord, and Captain Coghlan, of the Raleigh.

Others who accompanied the governor were the members of the staff of the state militia, Brig Gen. Avery B. Andrews, Military Secretary Treadwell and Capt. J. W. Miller, commanding the state naval militia.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Governor Roosevelt was received with a salute of thirteen guns. He was met at the gangway by Admiral Dewey, who conducted him to his cabin. When the governor left the Olympia he was taken to the New Hampshire, of the naval militia, where he held a reception. Shortly before noon Major General Merritt, commanding the department of the east, left Governor's Island to pay his respects to the admiral. General Merritt was accompanied by his full staff. Admiral Dewey met General Merritt at the gangway and after a word or two of greeting the different officers were presented.

The call lasted about half an hour, and as the army officers left the flagship a salute of thirteen guns were fired in honor of General Merritt.

Preparations were made at Governor's Island for the return of General Merritt's call. Admiral Dewey being expected later in the day.

ANSWER TO MR. HURST.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 27, 1899. The Clerks' union of the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, in refutation of the statements made by the firm of A. K. Hurst & Company, proprietors of the Globe clothing house, do submit the statement of the clothing dealers themselves, who signed the former agreement referred to in said article, and submit it to the public.

THE RETAIL CLOTHING CLERKS' UNION NO. 10.

George Bourie, President.
Chas. Neireiter, Secretary.
We, the undersigned, clothing dealers and gents' furnisheers of the city of Fort Wayne, do hereby certify that the agreement heretofore signed by us, wherein we agreed with the Retail Clerks' union No. 10, to close our respective places of business, was signed by us not for one year, but for an indefinite period of time.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Public:
The Retail Clerks' Union No. 10 submit for your consideration the following facts in refutation of the statements made by A. K. Hurst & Company, of the Globe clothing house.

It seems that Mr. Hurst is deeply grieved to be compelled to enter into a controversy with the Retail Clerks' union. Why should he not feel so, surrounded as he is with clothing dealers, all of whom close at 6 o'clock and live up to their agreement? We think he should feel more than grieved. He should be heartily ashamed of himself. The plea of Mr. Hurst is a plea showing that he is searching in the dark for a technical reason for violating his agreement.

We know that other clothing dealers and gents' furnisheers close their respective places of business at 6 o'clock. He also knows that he does not. He further knows that he did sign an agreement to close and that that agreement was not for a specific time. Even if that agreement does not exist (but it does), he ought to be honorable enough to close his store when he sees all of his competitors do so. There is nothing but a self-serving selfishness that keeps the doors of the Globe clothing house, open after 6 o'clock. Suppose, for the sake of argument, Mr. Hurst reserved the right to withdraw his name at the expiration of one year if he did so, so did all the other dealers. Yet, no other dealer, in the face of public sentiment, has the temerity to keep open. In a nut shell, all other dealers of any importance close. The Globe does not.

What has the honorable mayor to do with the closing of the Globe? He is neither a clerk, and we think, a patron of that store. If such an agreement is not in existence Mr. Hurst knows why; therefore his bluff about closing at 6 o'clock if it is produced. If the agreement does exist and Mr. Hurst will close his doors at 6 o'clock for one year if we produce to his satisfaction, why not like a good citizen close without an agreement, as other merchants do?

Under the plea of keeping open after 6 o'clock for the benefit of labor Mr. Hurst tries to hide his selfishness. Labor resents the imputation and we know will not patronize a concern opposing them.

Concluding, we challenge the Globe clothing firm to publish the wages paid their employees. Not what Mr. Hurst may from now on increase their weekly income to, but what he paid up to and including last Saturday evening. Also, how much of an increase he pays his clerks now over and above what he paid them before violating his agreement. As far as pertains to the beneficent (?) offer made the Clerks' union, we would rather see him apply that to the payment of his creditors in full. We need no charity. We are not beggars.

PORAC IS TAKEN.

MACARTHUR DRIVES FILIPINOS
FROM THE TRENCHES.

GENERAL WHEELER IN FIGHT

THE AMERICAN LOSS SAID TO BE VERY SLIGHT.

A HALF HOUR'S FIGHTING

INSURGENTS FLED AFTER A FEW VOLLEYS.

Manila, Sept. 28.—10:10 a. m.—The movement against Porac, about eight miles from Bacolor, in Pangasinan province, which began at daybreak this morning, in conducted personally by General MacArthur. General Wheeler, with the Ninth regiment and a battery, is advancing by two roads, while General Wheaton, commanding the Twelfth and Seventeenth regiments is moving to block the insurgents from retreating to the north. The Thirty-sixth regiment accompanies General MacArthur.

PORAC IS TAKEN.

Manila, Sept. 28.—3:30 p. m.—General MacArthur entered Porac, after half an hour's fighting. The American loss was slight and the insurgents' loss is not known. The enemy fled northward. When the Americans entered the town they found it entirely deserted.

The attacking party moved on Porac in two columns. The Ninth infantry, with two guns, from Santa Rita, was commanded by General Wheeler, and the Thirty-sixth infantry, under Colonel Bell, with one gun, accompanied General MacArthur from San Antonio.

Both columns struck the town at 9 o'clock and opened a brisk fire, which was replied to by the enemy for half an hour.

Then the insurgents fled and the Americans marched over their trenches and took possession of the place.

Just before the fight Smith's command, at Angeles, made a demonstration by firing artillery up the railroad track.

Liscum reported one casualty and Bell reported four men of his regiment wounded.

The artillery did not have any men injured.

Today's movement was a strategic success and resulted in the possession of Porac and the clearing of several miles of country thereabouts.

The two columns, one from Santa Rita and the other from San Antonio, united before Porac, according to program, stretching around the place for some miles.

The insurgents are estimated to have numbered 800 men. Ten dead Filipinos were found and the captain and commissary of Macarino's command were taken prisoners.

The American loss is five wounded, but there were many prostrations from the heat. Englishmen from the insurgent lines report that the Filipinos at Bamban have 5,000 new Japanese rifles.

Two Filipino majors came to the American lines last night with messages regarding the American prisoners, who were to arrive this morning. They also requested permission for General Alejandro, one colonel and two lieutenants to visit General Otis.

They were refused entrance to the American lines until noon Friday, on account of today's fight, and General Alejandro alone will be allowed to visit General Otis.

The insurgents recently entrenched and garrisoned the town of Paeto, on Laguna de Bay, in the province of Laguna. Subsequently Captain Larson, commanding the gunboat Nipadon, landed for a conference with the citizens. As he was proceeding up the main street of the town with a squad he was received with a volley from a hidden trench. The party retreated to their boat under cover of the buildings and regained their vessel.

The Nipadon then bombarded the trench for an hour, completely destroying it.

FIGHTERS TO PARADE.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—Eight companies of the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, accompanied by the second brigade band of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, left for New York today to take part in the parade next Saturday in honor of Admiral Dewey. The members of the regiment will be the guests of Philadelphia tomorrow, when Colonel Barnett will present to the city a cannon captured in the Philippines.

USING THE X RAYS.

Frank Rempis, of Waterloo, was brought to the city at noon today by his physician, Dr. F. Broughton, for the purpose of utilizing the Roentgen rays in determining the extent of an injury. Two months ago, while on a hunting expedition near Denver, Col., Rempis accidentally received a gunshot wound in the neck. As a result of this he is now paralyzed from the neck downward. The bullet passed through the neck and the physicians attribute the paralysis to the fact that the bullet shattered the vertebra. It is hoped the X rays may locate the trouble definitely and an operation will be performed to relieve the pressure upon the spinal cord. Rempis was taken in the ambulance to the office of Dr. McCuskey, where the photographing is being done.

GOSSIP ABOUT CITY AFFAIRS.

COMPTROLLER BERGHOFF EN-
FORCES TAG LICENSE.

Riders and Drivers Are Given Two More Days in Which to Settle for the Tags.

Comptroller Berghoff this morning sent the following letter to Superintendent Gorsline:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 27, 1899.—Honorable A. Gorsline, Esq., Superintendent of Police, City: Dear Sir:—The time fixed by ordinance to take out vehicle licenses for 1899-1900 expired September 15th. I have given until September 27, 1899, to enable all pay days to come in, and now ask you to enforce the law against all vehicle owners, buggies, teams, log wagons, trucks and bicycles. The law must be enforced against all alike. Children under fourteen years are exempt. All tags must bear the mark 1899-1900. Henry C. Berghoff, Comptroller."

Superintendent Gorsline immediately issued an order instructing all officers to stop bicycle riders and drivers who had no tags on their vehicles and notify them to take out their vehicle licenses before October 1. On and after the 1st of next month all persons riding or driving without a vehicle tag are to be brought to the police station and the vehicle will be held until the mayor has had an opportunity to hear the case. More than 2,200 bicycle tags have already been issued, but there are more than twice that many wheels being ridden in this city.

The afternoon session was devoted principally to the business of organizing the convention, listening to reports and electing officers for the general council. Rev. E. BY TIES OF BLOOD.

ORANGE FREE STATE UNITED
TO THE TRANSVAAL.

WILL STAND BY THE BOERS

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED BY THE RAAD.

DECLARE NO CAUSE FOR WAR

BOTH SIDES ACTIVE AND ARE PREPARING TO FIGHT.

London, Sept. 28.—The decision of the Volksraad of the Orange Free State to join with the Transvaal in the event of hostilities, although fully expected, is the leading news today and will naturally stiffen the Boers in their attitude.

The raad's resolution has made the brotherhood of arms between Transvaal and the Orange Free State, of which, hitherto, there was only a strong probability, an absolute certainty, and the British will have to face the situation.

The Volksraad's resolution was as follows:

"The raad having read paragraph 2 of the president's speech and the official documents and correspondence submitted therewith;

"Having regard for the strained state of affairs throughout the whole of South Africa, which has arisen in consequence of the difference between imperial government and the government of the Transvaal, which threatens lead to hostilities, the calamitous consequence of which to the white inhabitants will be immeasurable;

"TIES OF BLOOD.
"Being connected with the Transvaal by the closest ties of blood and confederacy;

"And, standing in the most friendly relationship with the imperial government, and fearing that should war break out, a hatred between the European races will be born which will arrest and retard the peaceful development of all the states and colonies of Africa and develop a distrust of the former;

"Feeling that the solemn duty rests upon it of doing everything possible to avoid the shedding of blood;

"Considering that the Transvaal government, during its negotiations with the imperial government, which have extended over several months, has made every endeavor to arrive at a peaceful solution of the differences raised by the aliens of the Transvaal and taken up by the imperial government as its own cause, which endeavors have, unfortunately, had only this result that British troops were concentrated on the border of the Transvaal and are still being strengthened;

"NO CAUSE FOR WAR.
"Resolved, That we intrust the government to still use every means to maintain and ensure peace, and in a peaceful manner, contribute towards the solution of the existing difficulties, provided it be done without violating the honor and independence of the Free State and the Transvaal, and wishes the ministry to make known its opinion that there exists no cause for war and that war against the Transvaal as now undertaken or occasioned by the imperial government, will morally, be a war against the whole white population of Africa, and in its consequences, criminal, for, some what may, the cause of the Free State will be to honestly and faithfully fulfill its obligations toward the Transvaal, by virtue of the political alliance between the two republics."

Intense excitement continues to prevail at Pretoria, where, apparently, it is believed that there is no escape from war.

The commission appointed to consider the matter, reported today as to what officials are necessary to carry on the government in the event of war and fixing their salaries.

The field cornet at Pretoria is again serving out rifles, commencing actively proceeding and all preparations are being made to take the field.

An Englishman named Robertson has been arrested at Johannesburg, charged with high treason. He is alleged to have enlisted recruits for the imperial light horse.

BURGHERS UNEASY.
The burghers are getting uneasy at the concentration of British troops between Ladysmith and Laings Neck, especially at Glencoe and Dundee. The nominal reason for the concentration is the protection of the Dundee coal fields, but the burghers shrewdly suspect that the real reason is the formation of a force which will advance across the Transvaal frontier at Vryheid as soon as war is declared.

The Boers do not intend to be caught napping and are now massing around Vryheid, not, however, merely as a protective measure, but to be prepared, unless the British reinforcements across the border cease, to make a dash in force through a portion of Zululand, crossing the Buffalo river at a point near Rocks Drift, and then seizing the railroad, cut off the British garrisons at Dundee and Ladysmith from the south, which would not only interrupt the British line of communication, but would seriously interfere with a forward movement. In order to watch this portion of the railroad exposed to a Boer incursion, a British post will be established at Rocks Drift.

THE BRITISH PLANS.
A dispatch from Mafeking, in British Bechuanaland, just across the Transvaal border, says a stream of destitute people is arriving there from Johannesburg.

A British infantry detachment, with some engineers, has arrived at De Aar, southwest of the Orange Free State and an important railroad junction. Extensive fortifications will be thrown up there and the town will be made the base of operations from that side against the Orange Free State or the Transvaal. More troops will shortly arrive at De Aar.

From Cape Town comes the news that at a meeting of the ministerialists there today it was unanimously resolved to petition Queen Victoria, deprecating the idea of war and urging a joint inquiry into the effect of the Transvaal franchise act as proposed by the imperial government August 2 and accepted by President Kruger.

BOERS WAIT FOR RAIN.
A cable dispatch to the Times from Cape Town says:

"The Boers would have taken the initiative by now but for the scarcity of water, the rains not being sufficient. Probably there will be great difficulties in providing food supplies for the people remaining at Johannesburg after hostilities have commenced. Several responsible people here who have long clung to the belief in an ultimate peaceful settlement, now regard war as inevitable."

The Birmingham Post says two cargoes of arms and ammunition leave Hamburg or Rotterdam Friday for the Transvaal, comprising 5,000 "improvised" Mausers, 500,000 cartridges and several mortars for dynamite charges.

New York, Sept. 28.—Admiral Dewey was considerably fatigued by his rounds of visits and receptions yesterday, and did not rise until later than usual today. He breakfasted with Flag Lieutenant Brumby at 7:30 and then remained in his quarters attending to some of his mail which had been accumulating very rapidly since he came into the bay on Tuesday.

There was a large crowd of sight-seers out early in excursion boats, launches and row boats, and they became very enthusiastic when "At colors" was sounded and the officers and crews gathered on the decks of the various warships, while half a dozen played "The Star Spangled Banner."

CHEER THE HERO.

After finishing his correspondence Admiral Dewey appeared on the quarter deck and paced up and down a constitutional. At that time there was a score of yachts around the flagship. The people on the excursion steamers and on the yachts cheered wildly at the first sight of the admiral and he was kept busy bowing in return.

It was learned definitely today that but one organization of troops from Texas will take part in the land parade on Saturday. The state authorities tried to make arrangements for a favorable rate with the railroads, but without success. The organization to be here is the Garrity Rifles, of Corsicana, and their expenses will be paid by W. D. Garrity, the founder of the Rifles.

BAD WEATHER FRIDAY.
According to the weather bureau at Washington there is bad weather in store at naval parade tomorrow. The following special prediction has been received from Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau at Washington:

"Washington, Sept. 28.—The storm now central over Lake Superior will Friday morning be central at about Montreal and will encompass within its storm area all of New England and the middle Atlantic states with high south shifting to west winds in the region of New York city and New York bay. Showers must be expected with south to west winds so strong as to be inconvenient to large and dangerous to small craft."

TROOPS ARRIVE.
Battery B, of Cincinnati, which arrived late last night to take part in the parade, is living in the cars in which it arrived in the Jersey City yards in Jersey City. They have two sleeping cars and a baggage car, which is utilized as a kitchen. They brought all of their trappings with them, but will hire horses in New York to drag the four galling guns of the battery in the land parade on Saturday. They expect to have a fifth gun arrive from New Haven in time to be used. There are forty men with the battery under the command of Lieutenant Fatten.

The Indianapolis light battery arrived over the Pennsylvania road with sixty men and five guns. They are under the command of Capt. J. F. Curtis. This battery served in the Porto Rico campaign. The members of the battery expect to occupy the train they traveled in during their stay here.

DEWEY'S MEN GET MEDALS.
Three hundred and fifty men who fought under Dewey at Manila were presented this morning, on board the Olympia, with the bronze medals awarded them by congress. Before general quarter was sounded all visitors were excluded from the ship and launches or boats were not permitted to come near the gangways until after noon. Captain Lamberton made the presentations, pinning a medal upon the breast of each man as his name was called. The medals bear the admiral's face in relief. Admiral Dewey's Chinese servants were also decorated.

DEWEY AND HOWISON.
Rear Admiral Howison was an early visitor to the Olympia and the boat loads of visitors had the gratification of hearing Admiral Dewey's voice. It was when Rear Admiral Howison was leaving the ship and was almost in his launch that Admiral Dewey shouted with all his lungs:

"Henry, what about that dinner?" "Oh," replied Rear Admiral Howison, "I forgot it, and I am going elsewhere tonight."

"Never mind," said Admiral Dewey, "sorry I mentioned it."

Another visitor was Captain Chadwick, of the New York, who walked with Admiral Dewey on the quarter deck for almost half an hour. Later on Admiral Dewey was joined by Lieutenant Brumby and they had an animated conversation until a party of junior officers from the Chicago interrupted them.

DEWEY AND A BOY.

A boat load of women attracted the admiral's attention, and catching sight of a flaxen-haired little boy dressed in sailor clothes in the bow of the boat, he invited the party on board and devoted several minutes speaking to the little chap on the quarter deck.

Rear Admiral Howison said today that the Chicago would appear in the naval parade, but that he would not.

RACING RULES ARE REVISED.

MODIFIED REGULATIONS FOR THE YACHT RACE.

In Case of the Disablement of Either
Yacht Her Competitor May Go
On to the Finish.

New York, Sept. 28.—At a joint meeting of the committee of the New York Yacht club on challenge of the Royal Ulster Yacht club, with the committee of that club, the conditions for the sailing of the races made September 6, 1898, were modified to read as follows:

"First—As to signals: A preparatory signal shall be given fifteen minutes before the starting signal and a warning signal five minutes before the starting signal. In case of a change in the time of starting the same signals shall be used. The change is in the addition of the warning gun and the provision that in case of a change in the time of starting the same signals be used.

"Second—The provisions that if a race is not started by 1:30 p. m. the regatta committee shall have the right to declare the race postponed for the day and that no race shall be started after 3 p. m. was changed to provide that no race shall be started after 12:30 p. m.

"Third—The provision for the presence on board during the races of a representative named by a competitor was changed by adding that the representative of a competing yacht shall be present during all measurements."

Six Thomas J. Lipton and C. Oliver Tselin also signed the following conditions to the original agreement:

"Inasmuch as we are of the opinion that the America's cup races are no less a test of the strength of construction of the competing vessels than of their sailing qualities, and it is deemed advisable to avoid the embarrassment in which a vessel finds herself when called upon to decide whether to withdraw from a race upon the occurrence of an accident disabling her completely, it is agreed in the races between the Shamrock and the Columbia each yacht shall stand by the consequences of any accident happening to her and that the uninjured vessel shall sail out the race."

On the subject of overcrowding by excursion steamers, the joint committee agreed upon the following:

"In case either contestant shall complain to the committee in challenge that his vessel has been interfered with by excursion steamers or other vessels in any race the committee will take the complaint into consideration and if it finds it well founded, will seek a conference with the committee of the Royal Yacht club with a view of arranging for the sailing of subsequent races without public notice."

GOVERNMENT TROOPS SUFFER A TERRIBLE DEFEAT.

TRYING TO CAPTURE ANDRADE

PRESIDENT SENDS FAMILY TO NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 28.—A dispatch to the Herald from Port of Spain, Trinidad, says:

Caracas is practically invested by the revolutionists. General Cipriano Castro's forces, moving from Valencia and Victoria, separated into three divisions. The right wing has already captured San Casimiro and Cumare, and is now occupying the valley of the Tuy river and commanding the road to Caracas, which is thirty miles distant.

The left wing is occupying Carrucua and the entire sea coast to Puerto Cabello and is moving toward La Guayra, with the especial object of cutting off the escape of President Andrade. The center and main division of the rebel army, under the personal command of General Castro, is moving on Los Teques and purposes to combine with the forces from the Tuy valley to make an assault on Caracas.

General Castro surprised the government troops on the plains of Valencia, causing a loss to Andrade's forces of 1,500 men in killed and wounded. General Adrian, of the government army, was among the slain. The loss of the revolutionists was slight.

The province of Coro is now held by the insurgents. The city of Carupano has taken up arms in favor of the revolution. It is believed that President Andrade has sent his family on the steamship Philadelphia to New York, he having ordered the Philadelphia by a dispatch from Caracas. The government of Trinidad has issued a proclamation against filibustering expeditions, threatening severe penalties. It is believed that another expedition is being fitted out here for Venezuela.

FATAL END OF A FIGHT.
Grass Valley, Cal., Sept. 28.—As a result of a fight in this city between Jim Pendergast, of Sacramento, and Charles Hoskin, of Grass Valley, Hoskin is lying at the point of death in the hospital suffering from hemorrhages of the brain. In the tenth round Hoskin was floored three times, the third time by a right swing on the jaw, and failed to come to when the referee counted off the ten seconds. He was taken to his dressing room and a physician called. He failed to regain consciousness and was removed to a hospital. The referee, Pendergast and all the seconds have been arrested.

of music brings forward many curious and strange instruments.

There are thousands of ways in which man has learned to produce a harmony of sweet sounds, but in these days a piano does more to give pleasure to more people than any other one instrument.

A piano is always a good investment provided it is a good piano.

LATER REPORTS OF THE DISAS-TER IN INDIA.

STORM NEWS GROWS WORSE

MANY HUNDREDS OF LIVES WERE LOST.

DAMAGE REACHES $5,000,000

HOW A BRAVE WOMAN SAVED LIVES OF GIRLS.

Calcutta, Sept. 28.—Lieutenant Governor Sir John Woodburn announced to the council yesterday that 400 lives were lost through the floods at Darjeeling, capital of the district of that name, in addition to those drowned on the plains.

Great havoc has been caused at Kurseong. The Margarettown estate lost 100 acres and the Mealand factory was destroyed. Some coolies were buried in the ruins of the manager's house, which was partially destroyed. The Avongrove estate lost thirty acres and 4,000 tea bushes. The coolie lines were swept away and many persons were killed, but the exact number is not known. A factory was also destroyed at this place.

A huge landslide below St. Mary's seminary destroyed the railroad bridge and completely blocked the road. A branch thirty yards wide has been made and the rails are hanging in the air. It is thought the break cannot be repaired within thirty days.

Telegraphic communication between Calcutta and Darjeeling has been re-established, but railroad traffic beyond Kurseong is not likely to be resumed for a long time. The road is impassable for horses and travelers are only able to journey on foot and with much difficulty.

The Methodists whose stations and schools have suffered from the earthquake are American missionaries.

Queen Victoria, on hearing of the disaster, telegraphed her profound sympathy to the bereaved families.

The story of the destruction of the Ida Villa branch of the Calcutta girls' school, supported by the American Methodists, is related by Miss Stahl, who saved many of the children. A landslide compelled the occupants to leave the building, and Miss Stahl, guiding the children, commenced a perilous climb, finally gaining the Mall road.

All the time rain was pouring down in torrents, the earth was shaking and the children were terrified. The blackness of the night, falling boulders, the crashing of trees and fears of the earthquake finally compelled the party to fly into the night.

Will Burley, the sole survivor of those who were caught in the landslide at Ida Villa, says that when it was seen that escape was impossible a sister made all kneel in prayer and, while kneeling, the house was swept away.

It is estimated that the loss to the ten garden proprietors alone is about $5,000,000.

THE SCOTSMAN ASHORE.

Heath Point, Quebec, Sept. 28.—The overdue steamer Scotsman is ashore in the Straits of Belle Isle. The steamer Mantfort carrying 200 of her passengers has passed in. It seems that the accident to the Scotsman was due to an error on the part of officers, who made a mistake about the new light in the Straits of Belle Isle. It is expected that the vessel will be a total wreck. The Scotsman sailed from Liverpool for this port on September 14.

WILL NOT ENTER SYNDICATE.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Henry Clay and Rock company, which is the owner of more than half the cigar factories in Havana, has declined, through President Rock, to enter the great tobacco syndicate organized by Wall street capitalists for the control of the Havana cigar industry.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED.

Just before noon today Virginia, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer, was struck by a bicycle ridden by a lady at Harrison and Washington streets and knocked to the pavement. It was at first believed she had been dangerously injured, but Dr. Stutz, who was summoned to attend her, does not apprehend any serious consequences, although the little one suffers much pain, and it is impossible to determine the exact extent of the injuries. No bones were broken.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

Co-Receiver H. C. Rockhill said this morning that it would probably be ten days before the Consolidated Street railway could be turned over to the reorganization committee. It is necessary to make a report to the court and have all the expenses of sale and receivership settled before the sale can be approved. General Garretson will be back in Fort Wayne within a week and a reorganization will be effected. John. H. Bass may be one of the directors of the company, and it is intimated that Frank DeHass Robinson may also be recognized in the reorganization. S. L. Nelson and W. S. Pettit, the Springfield men who were here in the interests of Philadelphia capitalists, may negotiate with the reorganization committee for the purchase of the system.

TWO NEW SOLDIERS.

Enlistments today for the United States volunteer service were William D. C. Kayser, of this city, and Thomas P. Forrest, of Seal, Ohio. Kayser was a member of company G, of the 157th regiment.

GATHERED IN THE COURTS.

AN INCORRIGIBLE YOUNG MISS
IN COURT.

Will Be Taken to Indiana Industrial
Home for Girls—Court
Items of Interest.

Hon. T. E. Ellison, president of the Allen County Orphans' Home, this morning filed a petition in the circuit court asking Judge O'Rourke to send Hattie Carpenter, an inmate of the home, to the Indiana Industrial School for Girls. The young miss is 14 years of age and has been an inmate of the Orphans' Home since June, 1897, her father being dead and the mother unable to care for her. Mrs. Overmeyer, the matron, cannot control the girl and the directors of the institution decided to have Judge O'Rourke send her to the state school. She was not averse to going. The girl was in court this morning and Judge O'Rourke heard the story.

MEMBERS REAPPOINTED.

Judge O'Rourke today appointed Rev. Henry P. Danneker and Alexander Johnson as members of the Allen county board of children's guardians for the term of three years. They had already served upon the board, but their terms had expired September 21. This afternoon the entire board, composed of Mrs. Helen F. Guild, Mrs. Helen F. Fleming, Mrs. M. B. Gorsline, Alexander Johnson, Rev. H. P. Danneker and A. H. Bittinger, were photographed at Miner's studio.

COURT NOTES.

Charles B. Woodworth has filed his final report as guardian of Robert McKee Ward. The report was approved by Judge O'Rourke and the guardian discharged.

Judge O'Rourke dismissed the case of the state ex. rel. Nora Dennis vs. Pearl Dennis.

The case of the state ex. rel. John Brannon, administrator, et al., vs. Benjamin McQuistan et al. has been set for trial October 25 in the circuit court.

The case of the Youngstown Electric Light company vs. the Fort Wayne Smelting and Refining works has been set for December 11.

Grant Archer has commenced suit on note and to set aside a conveyance against Gustave E. Steger et al.

In the circuit court this afternoon on petition of Elizabeth Darr, Judge O'Rourke made an order restraining her husband, John Darr, from disposing of his property. The parties have a divorce case in court and the woman alleges that her husband threatens to sell his property to prevent her collecting alimony.

Grace E. Trainor has commenced proceedings to compel Harriet Trainor, administratrix of the estate of the late John W. Trainor, to file a complete inventory of personal property.

THE EIGHTY-EIGHTH.

Seventy-five Fort Wayne people who attended the annual reunion of the Eighty-eighth regiment at Waterville Wednesday returned to the city delighted at the success of the gathering, and profuse in their praises of the hospitality of the Waterville people. One hundred and thirty survivors of the old regiment were present, and the comrades of other commands numbered as many more. The ladies, too, took a zealous interest in the exercises, and in the parade the wives and daughters of the old veterans were largely in evidence. Col. C. F. Briant, of Huntington, is commander of the association for the coming year, with Capt. Allen H. Dougall, of this city, as adjutant. The next reunion will be held at Butler.

BISHOP IS AT HOME

RT. REV. JOSEPH RADEMACHER RETURNS.

MENTAL CONDITION IMPROVED

BUT PHYSICALLY HE IS MUCH ENFEEBLED.

WILL REMAIN IN FORT WAYNE

NOT ABLE TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE DIOCESE.

Rt. Rev. Joseph Rademacher, bishop of the diocese of Fort Wayne, returned to the city Wednesday evening and is again at home at the episcopal residence. Mentally the distinguished patient has greatly improved and his physicians believe a few months will bring about his complete recovery. His physical condition, however, is very feeble. Disease has wasted away the once robust form and made the steps faltering. His hair, which but a few months ago showed but the first tinge of age, is now white, and covering the lower part of the face is a full round beard of snowy whiteness.

Bishop Rademacher expressed much satisfaction at reaching home again. He came from Lafayette with Vice General Gwendling, who went to that city to meet him. He greeted the priests of the episcopal household with much fervor and at supper chatted with his customary cheerfulness, but the fatigue of travel had wearied him and he retired soon after the evening meal. The bishop left St. Elizabeth's hospital in Chicago three weeks ago and was for two weeks the guest of Rev. Father Dunne at Lafayette. Last week he visited the French Lick Springs, returning to Lafayette Saturday. Here he determined to return to Fort Wayne and accordingly arrived Wednesday evening.

Bishop Rademacher's illness dates from January last. Two months later he was taken to Chicago for treatment and has been under the care of the most able specialists. His physician states that of late his improvement has been very rapid and if it continues the bishop may be able to resume his episcopal duties by New Year's, though his physical condition is not reassuring. The bishop is extremely nervous and abnormally sensitive, preferring seclusion, and inclined to take a melancholy view of matters, which is in direct contrast to his nature.

He is keenly alive to his condition and broods over it a great deal, but it is believed his home-coming will be a diversion and assist in his recovery. During his illness the bishop has retained the liveliest interest in public affairs. He is a warm admirer of Admiral Dewey and on the homeward journey read with interest the accounts of New York's reception to the naval hero.

The most unfavorable feature of the bishop's illness is his almost constant brooding over his nervous affliction, and it is believed if this can be overcome the distinguished patient's complete recovery will not be long delayed.

TWICE ROBBED.

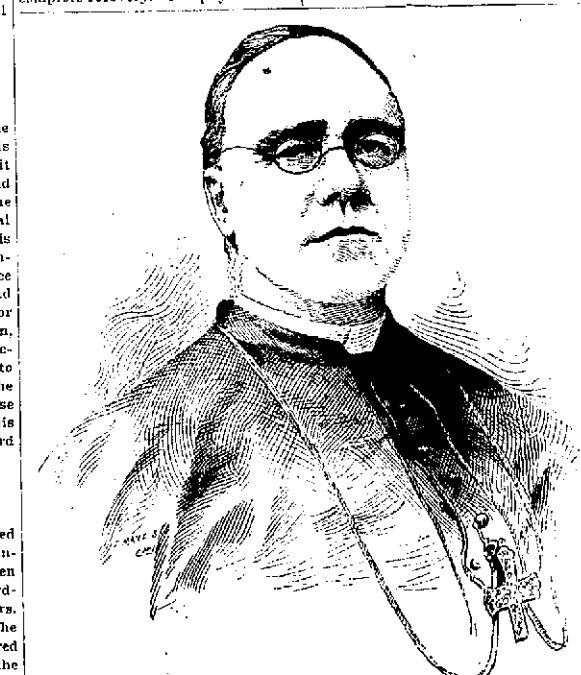

Officer Murphy reported this morning that he found the door of the saloon at the corner of Holman and Lafayette streets open last night and he is certain some liquor was stolen. The saloon is not doing business now, but has been closed some days and was entered Tuesday evening and again last evening, but the police do not know how much stock was stolen.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

SCOTT.

The remains of Otis H. Scott, one of the old pioneers of Allen county, reached the city today over the Wabash, and were taken to Lindenwood cemetery for interment. Mr. Scott died at his home at Danville, Ill., at the advanced age of ninety-two years, but the greater part of his life was spent among the people of Allen county. Though removing to Illinois three years ago, he always claimed Fort Wayne as his home, and his final resting place is near the familiar scenes of his former years. Mr. Scott was widely known among the older residents of the county. He came with his parents to this section in 1822, immigrating from Ohio in wagons drawn by oxen. Fort Wayne was merely a village, but through the succeeding years Mr. Scott saw and assisted in its transformation from primitive wilderness to a flourishing city. For many years his home was on East Berry street, and throughout his long residence here Mr. Scott enjoyed the respect and esteem of an almost universal acquaintance. Rev. Dr. Moffat officiated at the burial services today.

SAVERCOOL.

The remains of Mrs. Emma M. Savercool, who died at Boston, will reach this city over the Wabash at 10 o'clock Friday morning, and will be taken to the residence of N. H. Bledsoe, in Lakeside. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

KLEINREICHERT.

Lawrence Kleinreichert, an old resident of New Haven, died at his home in that place this morning at the age of 84 years. He has been in poor health for some time, and death was due to dropsy complicated with other diseases. For more than thirty years Mr. Kleinreichert has resided in this county, and he was widely known and highly esteemed. Surviving him are the widow and ten children, as follows: Mrs. S. Ganzer, Mrs. Katie Wright, Mrs. John Danzel, Joseph Kleinreichert and Mrs. Henry Kanning, of this city; Lawrence, John, Aloysius, Miss Mary and Miss Rose Kleinreichert, of New Haven. He leaves one sister, Mrs. John Harber, of New Haven.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

BLUFFTON STREET FAIR.

Those from this city who attended the Bluffton street fair report it one of the cleanest and best events of the sort ever held in the state. All lottery and gambling schemes and immoral side shows were prohibited. Bluffton people have reason to feel proud of their very successful street fair.

A PROCLAMATION BY REX.

CARNIVAL KING GIVES HIS SUBJECTS ORDERS.

Are Commanded to Appear on the Night of October 6th Costumed for Merry-making.

His imperial majesty Rex, king of the carnival, has issued the following proclamation to his subjects:

"Warning—You are hereby invited and also commanded to appear before me on Friday, October 6, in the year of Annie Dominoes, 1899, and in the year of my reign 1. You are to appear in such court dress as will not bring the blush to the cheeks of fairer maids than others, but be clothed in such manner that your mother, lover or brother would not recognize you. You will report to me on Market square at half past 6 o'clock p. m. by your own watch and chain and remain till the works blow up. By order of Rex.
Approved by the Mardi Gras committee."

After the parade dancing will take place on Berry street, between Harrison and Calhoun streets. A band stand will be erected in the middle of the square and the Olympia band will furnish the music. The program has not been arranged as yet, but there will be twelve dances on the program and the festivities will last until midnight. The prizes are on exhibition in the window of Pelens & Polster's drug store, corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets.

A. C. Goeke, the well known Broadway druggist, is confined to his home as the result of a fall he sustained Wednesday evening, in which his leg was severely sprained.

STOMACHS THAT WON'T WORK.

That Retain the Food and Refuses to Digest It, Makes the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak. Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion, or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form. By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good, sound, healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places, and put them into a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50c for full sized package.

Send to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for a little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

Were Otis to come home he might not get a Dewey reception, but he might come all the same.

No doubt holders of Cuban bonds are less happy at Spain's repudiation of them than the Cubans are at having no Spanish bonds on their hands.

It is reputed, and it is probably untrue, that the wife of the president of the Transvaal republic not only does her own cooking, makes her own beds and waits on the table, passing the dishes even at state dinners, but that she often takes a hand at the family washing. Although her famous husband has a capital of some $25,000,000, she boasts that they have never lived beyond their "coffee money," $2,000 a year, allowed them by the government.

Senator Platt's leaning towards Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, of New York, for the second place on the ticket with McKinley looks as if the senator's old dislike for the president was cropping out again, or else he is very sure of republican success with any ticket that may be named.

The right of one state to impress the citizens of another into its armies and navies has been disputed by the United States from the beginning of their history. Although we were a comparatively weak nation in 1812, we challenged the power of Great Britain in preference to submitting to the forcible enlistment of American sailors into the British service; and the principle was then contended for has been adopted into the law of nations. Germany and the other military powers of Europe have acknowledged the legality of the principle in the case of former subjects who have become naturalized Americans, even when reasonable grounds for suspicion existed that the latter expatriated themselves mainly for the purpose of escaping military service. The conscription of a bona fide citizen of the United States by Germany or by any other foreign authority would be resisted with all the force at our command. The South African republic can claim no exceptional rights, and the "commandeering" of Americans by a Boer field cornet to fight in the Transvaal army, or to hew wood and draw water for the same, could not and would not be permitted. The dignity of American citizenship must be maintained as strenuously in the Transvaal as anywhere else.

HOW FARMERS ARE HELPED.

Some facts furnished from Denmark give a striking illustration of what can be accomplished through well developed and intelligent effort. That country has not been commonly regarded as one of great agricultural possibilities. Its farm lands up to half a century ago were of little value, as were its farm products. But a wise system of agricultural training was instituted. The Philadelphia Press tells the result:

"By education, by careful cultivation, and by establishing model government dairies, which have been imitated by farmers, a trade has been built up in butter which amounted last year to $35,000,000 with England alone. Formerly Denmark exported her corn; now the export of bacon and hams exceeds 500,000 tons a year, simply because co-operative curing factories have been established, managed by farmers, at which the legs of a region are killed and dressed with great care. As a result the barren sand dunes, which once supported a semi-starving population, vies in its pork products with our richest western prairie land. The Danish egg trade was non-existent a generation ago; farmers organized, got aid from the government, sent traveling lecturers through the country, and in time a co-operative union was formed by 20,000 members, which collects the eggs, marks and sorts them into classes according to size. Consequently, England alone receives $3,500,000 worth of eggs in a year.

"In the ten years from 1887 to 1897 the exports of butter increased from 48,000,000 pounds to 102,000,000 pounds; of eggs from 546,000 score to 12,227,000; meat products from 42,433 pounds to 137,666. As the character of these meat products has been steadily improving, while meat has fallen in the rest of the world, the value in Denmark has risen from $3,716,000 to $14,444,000. In other words, while the quantity has about trebled, the value has more than quadrupled. In this country, where less pains are taken in the preparation of meat, the reverse has taken place. Quantity has grown faster than value.

"This growth, which has converted Denmark from one of the poorest countries in the world, agriculturally, to one of the richest, is solely due to intelligent government aid and agricultural education, supplemented by effective and intelligent co-operation among farmers."

Direct government aid of the kind referred to would be undesirable in this country, but the American farmer by similar energy and co-operation could accomplish equally satisfactory results.

A DEMOCRAT'S VIEW OF IT.

[Chicago Times-Herald.]
"My duty as an American citizen commands my support of the country's president at this juncture," said former Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, at the Grant Northern hotel yesterday afternoon.
"When he said in his Pittsburgh speech that the Philippines were just as much American soil as was Texas or Alaska he spoke the truth. The islands are ours by title of treaty.

ROBERT E. PATTISON.

and we have no title to Louisiana or Alaska except that confirmed by treaty. As they are ours, we are bound to see them pacified, to set up law and order in their midst. This is our first duty, it is a national duty, and democrats and republicans alike are bound to help fulfill that duty. The immediate object confronting us is the reduction of the Philippines to order, and it is vain as it is wrong to speculate about what we shall do with them or what sort of government we shall set up or how much self-government we shall extend to the natives until we have solved the immediate question. To take trouble about those ultimate matters when an immediate matter threatens is as impractical as it is un-American."

DEED OF AN INSANE MOTHER.

ATTEMPTED TO MURDER THREE CHILDREN.

Two Are Dead—Gave Them Morphine Then Slashed Her Own Wrists and Turned on the Gas.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Clara Rheiner, aged thirty-four, of 109 Catherine street, last night attempted to murder her three children and commit suicide. She gave the children morphine, cut her own wrists and then turned on the gas in the room they were in. When discovered two of the children, Harold, aged three, and the baby, aged fourteen months, were dead. By hard work the eldest child, Elmer, who was seven years of age, and Mrs. Rheiner were resuscitated. Mrs. Rheiner failed to cut the arteries in her wrists and the physicians at St. Mary's hospital say she will recover. The family was discovered by Mrs. Rheiner's two brothers, who had met her husband on the street and from his peculiar actions imagined the couple had had some trouble. They went up to the house to investigate and found them all in one room which was full of gas. Mrs. Rheiner made a statement to the officers admitting killing the children and said she wished she was with them. She confessed to having had domestic troubles, but stated that they were not entirely responsible for her deed. It is believed that Mrs. Rheiner is insane.

Her husband has not been found since the crime was discovered and she says that he has not been at home for three days.

HUMANE SOCIETY STOPS FAD.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—The Humane society of Connecticut threatened to arrest a wealthy New Yorker yesterday if he did not substitute long stockings for the fashionable low kites worn by his daughter, eight years old. Attorney Moyle, the society's agent, had his attention called to the little girl, who had on the fashionable short stockings that are worn by children that reached about an inch above her shoes, the rest of her legs being exposed to the cold September wind. The parents of the girl, George F. Fleuret and wife, wealthy New Yorkers, stopping with their maid at a local hotel, were threatened with arrest by the attorney if they did not provide long warm stockings for the child. After indignant protests at the police office they did as ordered.

FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 28.—At yesterday's session of the Michigan Municipal league the question of public lighting and the general municipal ownership of public utilities was discussed and resolutions were passed favoring municipal ownership. After reciting the decision of the supreme court on the McLeod law the resolutions say: "We favor the submission to the people of this state at the earliest possible time the question of an amendment to the constitution which will permit and allow every city to run, own and operate all of its public utilities, and we hereby request the governor and legislature to prepare and submit such proposed amendments at the first election after the convening of the legislature."

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The Samoan situation is regarded by officials as much more menacing, because of the numerous reports, particularly those from German sources, that the Matanua natives are growing restive and are being incited to another rebellion. There has been no official verification of these reports, but officials acquainted with affairs there and in possession of the latest information credit the reports and say there are indications that further trouble is brewing.

NATION'S MISSION

JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN
TALKS OF EXPANSION.

OUR DUTY IN THE PHILIPPINES

GOOD GOVERNMENT MUST BE GIVEN THE ISLANDS.

PURPOSES OF COLONIZATION

IT IS TO LIFT UP LOWLY AND HELPLESS PEOPLES.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 28.—President Jacob G. Schurman, in his address at the opening of the scholastic year of Cornell university today, spoke at considerable length on the subject of national expansion. Mr. Schurman was president of the commission sent to the Philippine islands to investigate the subject of civil government of the archipelago. At the outset Mr. Schurman referred to his address of last year, when he answered negatively the inquiry, "Shall we take the Philippine islands from Spain?"

His opinions, he said, brought upon him no little condemnation, but the rapid march of events rendered it unnecessary to consider whether these opinions were sound or not.

The treaty-making power of the United States, backed, he admitted, by an overwhelming public opinion, irrespective of party, took the Philippine islands from Spain. Some people were still discussing the theoretic expediency of expansion.

THE ONLY QUESTION.

This had not been an open question since last winter. The only question today open was this:

JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN.

"The United States having taken the Philippine islands from Spain, what shall be done with them?"

This grave issue must be decided by the president and congress. With them he thought it could be left in the confident expectation that a wise solution would be reached. He invited attention to some observations on the general subject of national expansion.

A difference between the expansion of the United States and that of Great Britain came prominently into view when our new states were compared with dependencies like India. The population of the United States was homogeneous, that of India indescribably heterogeneous. The Americans ruled themselves, whether in New York or Oregon; the alien and multitudinous races of India could be held together only by a strong foreign hand. America had grown from within outwards; England had enlarged herself by accretion.

PHASE OF NEW EXPANSION.

Our assumption of sovereignty over the Philippine islands was altogether unlike the previous phases of our national expansion. He pointed out that whereas in the development of the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific, practically uninhabited territories were found; the Philippine islands were already well peopled with Malaysians, who had long made it their home, who resented the intrusion of other races, and to whom the physical environment was far better adapted than it was to white men.

There are those who speak of the Philippine islands as our possessions, and calmly conclude we may do what we like with them.

This was too barbarous to be taken seriously; it was not callousness of heart, it was only muddle-headedness.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY.

The terms "ownership" and "possession" were a barbarous survival when applied to any relation between one people and another. The sovereign power owned nothing, but there is something it owed. It was charged with the responsibility of government. Our relations with the Philippines would be misrepresented so long as we retained the fatal confusion of government and property. Continuing, Mr. Schurman said:

"We simply possess, in virtue of the treaty of Paris, the right to govern or aid in governing the people of the Philippine islands. Unhappily, we have not got beyond the first function of government—the suppression of insurrection and the establishment of peace and order."

NOT A QUESTION OF PROFIT.

There was, said President Schurman, no instance in history of the successful government of a colony where profit to the parent state or its citizens had been a leading consideration.

On the other hand there were many examples of distress and rebellion from such unworthy greed and exploitation.

"Let a nation," he said, "seek to enrich itself or its citizens at the expense of its colonists and it impoverishes all. But let a nation in all its dealings with its colonies take as its sole criterion of judgment and standard of conduct the welfare of the colonists and it will result, as history everywhere demonstrates, that the enriched dependencies become the most profitable traders with the ruling country."

THE HIGHEST PURPOSES.

President Schurman said that the initiative and the directing power belong to the sovereign nation and must be exercised by higher purposes. A few will suffice. Of course, there must be one responsible head. But with an organizing genius at the helm it was simply astonishing how much could be got out of the natives. Continuing he said:

"I was often asked in the Philippines if our civil service was better than that of Spain. Here is a point where the Filipinos suspect and fear us. We must allay their anxiety and suspicion by a splendid Philippine civil service. I believe we shall. It is absolutely necessary.

"But there will be no harder task in connection with our government of the archipelago. I repeat, however, that the success of our administration in the Philippines will depend upon the men we send out to conduct it much more than upon acts of congress or any other circumstance."

PURPOSE OF COLONIZATION.

In conclusion Mr. Schurman said: "What is the end of colonization? Why should we extend our sovereignty over remote countries and alien peoples? I answer that only the justifiable object of such expansion is the establishment of good government in the territory annexed, the elevation of its people in civilization, and the training of them in progressive self-government with a view to ultimate independence whether they are partisans in it or separated from the sovereign state. As the end of the moral being is perfection, and the end of the economic society is wealth, so the end of the political community is independence. In the divine creation of the race no people can be permanently kept in a state of subjection, or even dependent upon, another people. Of all colonizing nations England is the only one which has realized this great principle, and it took a successful rebellion in her first empire to impress the truth even upon England.

THE NATION'S MISSION.

"In the Philippine islands our own mission is to educate and elevate the Filipinos and aid them in governing themselves. We shall not adopt the policy of scuttle, nor, although American sovereignty must be established even by force, shall we ever dream of the policy of extermination. Not oppression, nor yet abandonment and desertion; not these, but honest and fraternal co-operation with the Filipinos for the establishment of a just and stable government of the natives who shall have ever-increasing participation in proportion to the development of their political capacities, the growth of their political experience, the progress of the masses in education and civilization and the evolution of the ideas which will be nourished by developing the habit of common action, the improvement of the means of communication, the freer intermingling of the tribes and races and hearty native co-operation with the Americans whose best political traditions are but the realization of the dearest ideals of the Filipino peoples."

FUNSTON TALKS OF WAR.

Fort Scott, Kan., Sept. 28.—General Frederick Funston, formerly colonel of the Twentieth Kansas volunteers, now en route home from Manila, in a letter received by a friend here today predicts that the war in the Philippine islands will have been ended by spring. General Funston says: "I would really like to see the war through to the finish, not for the position I hold, but because my fighting blood is up. I am confident that by spring it will be over. The indications are that a very aggressive campaign will be inaugurated this fall and they will have what they lacked before, 3,000 cavalry, absolutely indispensable in a guerrilla war. Lord, wouldn't I like to command a cavalry brigade. I have never for a minute had any qualms as to the justice of this war. We are right and they are wrong. I hope that when they are conquered they will be made to feel for many years the iron hand of military rule, the only kind for which they are suited. I think the islands a most valuable acquisition. Their natural resources are almost beyond computation. From a strictly money standpoint they are great."

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Bradley, Chicago's new third baseman, accepted twelve chances in the first game yesterday without an error. He also made a two-bagger and a three-bagger.

Marty Bergen has again left the Bostonians without leave. He hurt his hand and without saying a word packed his grip and returned to North Brookfield.

Captain Truby has recommended outfielders Wright and Connor and pitcher Carney to Jimmy Manning, of Kansas City.

One by one the players are leaving for their homes. Sample has left for Freeport, Ill., where he will be employed this winter.

Grand Rapids Press: "Torreyson says he will be back in Grand Rapids next year with an Inter-State team. Not if Grand Rapids sees him first. Torreyson also said the same thing about Columbus and Springfield."

Elly Meyer started for New Castle Wednesday afternoon and arrived in the Quaker city at 11 o'clock this morning. The league meeting will be held this evening, at which time President Fowler's successor will be chosen.

The Concordians would like a game with a good amateur team of the city for Saturday, September 30. Only organized clubs need accept. Bunting order must be in before Saturday morning. Address, C. W. Baer, manager.

"Click" Stahl scored four runs against Washington yesterday without making a hit. "Click" also stole one base. He is playing all the fine points of the game this season and does not depend alone on his bat to make a great player of himself.

The Fort Waynes have made arrangements to play three more games with the South Bend Greens next Saturday, Sunday and Monday in South Bend. The Fort Wayne players tell that South Bend has a strong amateur team and they do not anticipate easy victories.

BUMPS' GREAT RECORD.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28.—C. K. G. Billings' great pacer Bumps, 2:04 1/4, pulled a wagon a mile Wednesday in the sensational time of 2:03 1/4 and shattered all wagon records to smithereens. Up until Wednesday Joe Patchen's wagon record of 2:04 3/4 was the world's record, but Bumps eclipsed that record by a full second and a half and he also beat his harness record of 2:04 1/4, made to sulky a year ago. He was driven by W. L. now, trainer for the Forest City farm of Cleveland, Ohio.

Bumps scored away alone and stepped the first quarter in 0:30, and was down to the half in just 1:00. Here two runners as prompters accompanied the great pacer the rest of the trip. The third quarter was paced in 0:31 and the mile in 2:03 1/4.

What makes this performance all the more meritorious for the Chicago pacer is that the temperature was not of the record-breaking kind, as evidenced by the time made in all the class races. Bumps, some two weeks ago, was driven a mile at Terre Haute, Ind., to a wagon by his owner, C. K. G. Billings, one of Chicago's millionaires, in 2:08 1/4, and two days later George Starr drove him a mile in 2:05 1/4. He started to beat that record.

M'COY BEAT M'CORMICK.

New York, Sept. 28.—Four weeks ago the news came from Chicago that Kid McCoy, the noted middle-weight pugilist, had been knocked out in the second round by Jack McCormick, of Philadelphia, a fourth-rate heavy-weight. McCoy claimed that it was a lucky punch that put him out.

Last night at the Lenox Athletic club, in the presence of 4,000 persons, McCoy and McCormick met again to decide the supremacy. The result was just what the sports looked for. McCoy made his rival look like an amateur. He knocked him down repeatedly and in the eighth round McCormick, hopelessly beaten, dropped to the floor without being hit. That was an infringement of the rules and McCormick was promptly disqualified.

McCoy did not have to work very hard, but as his opponent was merely a rough slugger he was cautious until it appeared to him that the fight was his.

McCormick apparently had no chance when he came out of his corner for the eighth round. But he began with the old rushes, head down. He was depending on a lucky punch. McCoy rushed him in turn and the big Quaker went down again for a count.

"If you fall again without a blow," said the referee to McCormick, "I'll stop you."

"I can't help it," gasped Jack. Then McCoy proceeded to make a chopping block out of McCormick, whose face was covered with blood from half a dozen cuts. McCoy knocked him down twice more and then, as McCormick dropped without receiving a blow, the referee ruled him out and declared McCoy the winner. The time of the round was 2:51. McCormick was swiftly saved from a sure knockout, as McCoy had him hopelessly beaten.

HAD A BUSY DAY.

take precedence over Admiral Sampson.

As the tug left the New York for the Olympia the flagship fired a major general's salute.

DEWEY WELCOMES MILES.

Admiral Dewey, Captain Lamberton and Flag Lieutenant Brumby received the committee. Admiral Dewey grasped the hand of Major General Miles as he stepped aboard and said:

"Am glad to see you, general."

The admiral took the committee into his cabin, the committee remaining on board three quarters of an hour.

DEWEY'S OLD FRIEND.

When the committee from Washington reached the Olympia each member of the party was cordially greeted by Admiral Dewey, but the warmest hand clasp and heartiest greeting were for the admiral's lifelong friend, Senator Redfield Proctor, of Vermont. The admiral presented each of the visitors to Captain Lamberton and then all went to the admiral's cabin, where the committee presented the program for the Washington celebration, and the admiral expressed his entire satisfaction with it. Mr. Proctor presented an invitation to a dinner by the president and Admiral Dewey accepted it.

FIRST ADMIRAL'S FLAG.

Commander George W. Baird, who sailed with Farragut and Dewey in the gulf squadron in 1861 unrolled a package which he had carefully guarded all the way to the Olympia, and displayed a faded blue admiral's ensign upon which were stitched four white stars. He said to Admiral Dewey:

"Admiral, I wish to present to you the first admiral's flag ever 'broken out' in the navy of this country. That grand old admiral whose name and memory all so reverence, first hoisted this ensign upon the good ship Hartford, before New Orleans, and afterwards upon the Franklin, and since it came down from that masthead it has never been whipped by the wind or worn by the elements. You, the worthy successor of that great admiral whose tactics you so successfully followed a short while ago, I deem the proper person for Farragut's mantle to fall upon."

This flag was made by quartermaster Knowles out of a blue "number" flag when Farragut was first made a rear admiral. Two white stars were sewed on it. When Farragut was made an admiral two more white stars were sewed on it. Farragut flew this flag on the Hartford at New Orleans and afterwards in the Mediterranean.

TEARS IN THE HERO'S EYES.

Admiral Dewey was deeply affected and tears were in his eyes as he gazed at the souvenir. It was several moments before he could find his voice. Finally he said:

"I'll fly it—I'll fly it at the mast head—I'll fly it in the parade—I'll fly it always—and when I strike my admiral's flag this will be the flag I shall strike."

This was the most impressive scene that has occurred on the Olympia

since her arrival in this port, and for some time no one spoke. The silence was broken by Dewey, who called to his Chinese steward and ordered a case of champagne. The Washingtonians remained on board chatting with the admiral for an hour. A portion of the committee left for Washington at 3:30 o'clock.

Ensign E. Detagorres, of the Royal Greek navy, was presented to Admiral Dewey by W. B. Bailey, chief engineer of the New York. The junior officers of the New York were presented at the same time by Captain Chadwick.

G. A. R. VETERANS TO MARCH.

A committee of one hundred citizens has subscribed sufficient money to defray the expenses of a band to head the civil war veterans in the land parade.

This organization will be headed by General Howard and its ranks will be open to any credited veteran. General Howard announces that over 1,000 men will be in line. General Howard said today that Commander-in-Chief Kay has exceeded his authority when he issued an order saying that G. A. R. men should not march as individuals in the Dewey land parade. General Howard said: "Kay is not over me, but if he were I would consider that the order that G. A. R. men should not march as individuals in the parade counted for little, as he entirely exceeded his authority in issuing it. General Roe has assigned us a place for 1,200 men in the parade and I have sent him a list of organizations which are to fill the space."

BIG FLORAL HORSESHOE.

A magnificent floral piece, shaped like a horseshoe, nine feet high, embracing the seal of Massachusetts, was presented to Admiral Dewey today in the name of the commonwealth of the state by William A. Twombly, of Boston.

Rear Admiral Philip said today that the Olympia will probably be saluted on arrival at Grant's tomb, and that the Sunday Hook, carrying the mayor and party, would be side by side with the flagship.

The convicts in the city prison have published a special Dewey edition of Prison Forum, which will be presented to the admiral with their compliments. They will rest from prison labor tomorrow and Saturday.

There will be at least 300 life savers along the river front tomorrow in readiness to assist in case of accident.

ROSEVELT'S VISIT.

New York Sept. 28.—Admiral Dewey and his officers and men on the Olympia were formally welcomed to the state of New York this afternoon by Governor Roosevelt and the chief officers of the navy guard of the state who went down the bay on Gen. Francis V. Green's yacht Wild Duck. Besides Governor Roosevelt there were among the welcoming party other men whose grasp of the admiral's hand were something more than formal. Gen. Francis V. Green, who went with the governor, is a Manila campaigner, and for the first time since the admiral left the harbor of Manila he shook hands with some of the captains who commanded vessels in his squadron on May 1, 1898.

These were Captain Wildes, of the Boston; Captain Dyer, of the Baltimore; Captain Wood, of the Petrel; Captain Walker, of the Concord, and Captain Coghill, of the Raleigh. Others who accompanied the governor were the members of the staff of the state militia, Brig Gen. Avery B. Andrews, Military Secretary Treadwell and Capt. J. W. Miller, commanding the state naval militia.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Governor Roosevelt was received with a salute of thirteen guns. He was met at the gangway by Admiral Dewey, who conducted him to his cabin. When the governor left the Olympia he was taken to the New Hampshire, of the naval militia, where he held a reception. Shortly before noon Major General Merritt, commanding the department of the east, left Governor's Island to pay his respects to the admiral. General Merritt was accompanied by his full staff. Admiral Dewey met General Merritt at the gangway and after a word or two of greeting the different officers were presented.

The call lasted about half an hour, and as the army officers left the flagship a salute of thirteen guns were fired in honor of General Merritt.

Preparations were made at Governor's Island for the return of General Merritt's call. Admiral Dewey being expected later in the day.

CHRISTENED A CUB.

The Hon cub given to Admiral Dewey was given a name by the admiral this forenoon in his cabin on the Olympia. The admiral invited Captain Lamberton, Lieutenant Brumby and Chaplain W. H. Remney into his cabin and lifting the box containing the cub to the table said: "Gentlemen, we must give the Hon-heated cub a name. I have decided to call him 'Gilester,' in memory of my English friend, Captain Gilester, of the British cruiser Imortalite."

Admiral Dewey has not made up his mind what to do with the cub.

DIED ON A TRAIN.

WILLIAM SCHIEFER EXPIRES
EN ROUTE HOME.

HIS TRIP WEST UNAVAILING

AND IN DISCOURAGEMENT HE TURNED HOMEWARD.

AFFAIRS OF SHOP AND RAIL

WABASH SHOPS GET ORDERS FROM BUFFALO DIVISION.

William Schiefer died last night a short distance west of Danville, Ill., while en route to his home in this city. The sad tidings of his demise were carried by telegraph early this morning to the wife and parents of the deceased, who were greatly shocked by the news, as they did not think the young man was so seriously ill as to be in danger of immediate death.

In accordance with railway rules, the body was removed from the train as soon as possible after life was extinct and it is now in Danville, whither the aged father went this morning to make arrangements for bringing it to this city for burial. Mr. Schiefer stated to a Sentinel reporter that he expected to return here tomorrow morning at 6:10 o'clock with the remains of his son.

William Schiefer was about 33 years old married and the father of one child. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich Schiefer, of 135 Montgomery street, where the wife and child have been stopping during the stay of the young man in the west.

When a boy William entered the Wabash machine shop as an apprentice, served the usual term in that capacity and then was employed as journeyman machinist by the company. A little over a year ago he was taken with a bad cold, which did not yield to the treatment usually adopted in such cases and he feared he was drifting into consumption. Acting upon the advice of his physician, Mr. Schiefer went to Albuquerque, N. M., where he was promised employment in railway shops, hoping that the change of climate would be beneficial. Instead, however, the change proved injurious and he continued to decline and after being convinced that his days on earth were to be few, he started home, hoping to reach this city ere the end came.

Mr. Schiefer made the long journey from New Mexico unaccompanied by relative or friend and when taken worse on the train, was attended only by his fellow passengers and the trainmen, who did all that they could to alleviate suffering and prolong his life, though none had ever seen him before.

The funeral arrangements will not be completed until the father arrives with the remains and the announcement cannot be made until tomorrow.

VISITING OLD FRIENDS.

J. C. Fleming, of Chicago, is the guest of M. E. Rundel. The visitor was for many years employed on the Pittsburgh road as an engineer and when thus engaged made this city his home. He is, therefore, well acquainted here and is being welcomed by old friends on all sides. Mr. Fleming now has charge of the machinery in a large elevator in Chicago.

AN IMMENSE EXCURSION

The annual Ohio excursion to Willis county yesterday was an immense affair, the Chicago and Erie road, over which the party traveled, making three sections of the train. It is estimated that there were nearly 2,000 people in the party. About half of the party attended the street carnival at Bluffton yesterday, while many of them came to this city to look at the sights and do some trading. Today the big picnic is in progress at Ossian and several thousand people are in attendance.

J. H. Simonson has returned from Bear Lake and taken up business affairs.

Superintendent and Mrs. J. W. Hunter left last night for New York to attend the Dewey reception.

INCREASED THE FORCE.

The improvement in the building trade has made an addition to the working force at the planing mills necessary and the following carpenters have taken positions in the factory of Rhinesmith & Simonson: Louis Waxenfelder, Stephen Kipp and L. Snell. The ranks are now full and no more men will be employed for awhile.

GOES TO ALLEGHENY.

W. H. Hobrock, the expert heater, has reconsidered his determination not to go to Allegheny to work in the Pennsylvania brass foundry, and in response to a telegram last night left for that city. He had been given a place in the machine shop in this city, but vacated it last night.

A SOLDIER TRAIN.

Some soldiers passed through the city last evening, their train running as the second section of Nickel Plate train No. 3. The soldiers were en route to Fort Crook.

SHIPPING DYNAMOS.

The most important of the shipments from the electric works today were an 80-light dynamo, arc system, to Louisville, Ky., and a 500-light incandescent dynamo to Riverside, N. Y. Construction men will leave in a few days for those cities to set the machinery up and place it in operation.

CROWDS AT THE FAIRS.

So far this fall the county fairs and street carnivals have been well attended, particularly by the farmers. The Grand Rapids and Indiana road took 330 people into Portland on its morning train from the south today and other trains were also well loaded. The county fair is in progress at Portland.

SWITCHMEN SCARCE.

The Pennsylvania company is having difficulty in getting men sufficient to perform the work in its yards at terminals and elsewhere at present. This is due in part to the rigid physical examination applicants have to undergo, the examining surgeons rejecting many men who apply for positions. Other roads while short of help of this character at times, are not handicapped by restrictions such as are imposed upon the Pennsylvania yard officials, and they can soon fill all vacancies from the "traveling switchmen" who are constantly looking for a job, though if they get it they will not work more than a few weeks in one town.

MORE WORK IN SIGHT.

The Wabash shop officials now have orders to rebuild eight ten-wheel engines and two eight-wheelers, known in shop parlance as the 1880 type, and to send them, when completed, to the Buffalo division. This will make things even more lively at the shops in this city than they are at present. In rebuilding engines the cost is chiefly in labor and as the mechanics and laborers are citizens the whole city will come in for a share of the benefits to accrue from this work. The company has been notified that five more of the new Baldwin engines, two passenger and three freight, are en route here to be set up and placed into service. There are already seventeen new engines in service on the road and all are working satisfactorily.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pearl Biegler is sick and off duty. He is a Wabash machinist.

John Edelman, a Pittsburgh shopman, is attending a fair at Warsaw.

T. Seany, Nickel Plate conductor, has been sick and off duty for two or three days.

Harry Metzler, of the Pittsburgh shops, went to Kendallville this morning to attend the fair.

C. E. Campbell, the elevator man at the electric works, has recovered from an attack of sickness.

Fred Engelking is sick and not at his place of duty in the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop this morning.

Foreman John Kretzinger, of the Pittsburgh planing mills, is detained at home by sickness in his family.

F. H. Peters, who recently moved here from Bucyrus, Ohio, has taken a position in a machine shop.

William Bolyans, machinist, and F. Hoepner, boiler washer, are sick and off duty.

Paul Hoppe, of the main office of the electric works, is doing the honors of a new father today. The little one is a boy.

Louis Tryer has returned from a business visit to Avilla, and this morning resumed charge of his department in the electric works.

Morris Archibald, of the electric works, has returned from Alligan, Mich., where he went to look after affairs for the company last week.

O. W. Lehman, the Pittsburgh shopman who had a leg hurt a week ago, has nearly recovered from the accident. He resumed work this morning.

N. Nicole, who quit a position in the Buss blacksmith shop two months ago on account of the work disagreeing with him, resumed work there this morning.

The Erie Railway company, which has heretofore paid no attention to handling furniture, has decided to build 200 furniture cars of the largest pattern.

A. Deutchel and C. W. Cran, carpenters at the Pittsburgh shops, are off duty, the former on account of sickness and the latter to look after some private business.

The Southern Indiana road is filling deeds at county seats along its line for property it has secured as a right of way into Tervo Haute. The company pays cash for the right of way it purchases.

Engineers E. Vantilburg and Bert Crosby and Firemen John Anderson and John Lalander are off duty, the latter on account of sickness and the others to look after private business. All are Nickel Plate men.

The American Society of Railroad Superintendents will hold its annual meeting in New York October 10, and on the 11th the American Railway Association will hold its semi-annual convention at New York.

Nickel Plate brakeman J. A. Bushey has recovered from his recent sickness and is again at his work on the road. Brakeman J. Heslin, who was taking a lay-off for the purpose of resting, also resumed work yesterday.

Conductor Charles H. Pike, who has figured prominently in Order of Railway Conductor affairs in this country, was buried at Jackson, Mich., a few days ago. He was one of the oldest employees on the Michigan Central road.

Fred Schultz, a moulder, who has been working as helper in the Buss blacksmith shop for some months, resigned his place there last night to accept a position at his trade in the establishment of Charles M. Menefee, on Oliver street.

A novel boycott has been instituted at Chicago, the ticket scalpers refusing to handle the tickets of one of the local lines, asserting that it has not paid its agreed commissions, which amount to $3,000, to different members of the Brokers' association.

Henry Jones, the popular engineer, is not in such a serious condition as reported a few days ago. He is able to walk about and if the improvement continues, he will be able to resume his place at the throttle in a few days. His ailment is not of a serious character.

The Pennsylvania finding a need of more passenger engines, will, it is said, build a number of engines still larger than the present Class L machines. The company wants to do away with the necessity of running double-headers, and the only way is to have engines capable of hauling heavy trains.

The monthly report of the voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh for August shows benefits paid as follows: Deaths by accident, 7, $2,750; natural, 8, $5,250; disablement by accident, 523, $7,283.50; by sickness, 943, $3,194.40; total benefits, 1,181, $23,477.90.

The Indianapolis Journal says that the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will go to Cleveland. A committee on location visited Fort Wayne last week and seemed favorably impressed with the city, but it seems the gentlemen have since decided upon Cleveland.

Frank Dorist, stenographer in Mr. Fitzpatrick's office, is circulating among the grangers in Jay county today and discoursing upon pumpkins and squashes, two products of the farm that he has never been able to distinguish, one from the other. He is attending the fair at Portland.

Engine 171, recently out of the Stony Island shops after receiving repairs, "ran hot" while pulling the first section of Nickel Plate train No. 3 yesterday afternoon and had to be relieved at Arcadia, O. Engine No. 20 brought the train in, but it was delayed one and a half hours by the accident.

Plans for a new union depot at Buffalo, N. Y., promise to furnish that city with a grand structure if politics does not interfere. The estimated cost of the structure is $1,500,000. It will have a frontage of 326 feet on Main street and a depth of 203 feet, with accommodations for trains on twenty-four tracks.

Recently the manager of one of the trunk lines had to refuse an offer of $150,000 clean money offered by an advertising firm. The agent wanted the use of all the box cars on the road for displaying bills and signs of manufacturing and mercantile concerns. It was a tempting offer to refuse, but, fearing that the innovation would finally disfigure every car on the road and make it impossible for the trainmen to read the numbers, the official declined with thanks. It is said that many such propositions have been made to railroad officials, but have been refused on grounds that paper pasted on sides of cars adds to the expense of repainting, makes the cars look like billboards and conceals the numbers and initials.

The abolition of the penny postage stamp is the latest proposal that has been made to the English postoffice for the improvement of the system. It is suggested that a form of automatic machine should be employed, with a slit into which the letter should be inserted.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such action should be avoided by all persons who desire to preserve their sense of smell. There is a danger that you will do so by using the cheap ointments that are sold in every drug store. They are made of mercury and iodine, and when introduced into the system, they will destroy the sense of smell. The only safe remedy is the one that is sold by J. C. Schaeffer & Co., of New York. It is a pure, natural remedy, and it will cure you without doing you any harm. It is sold by all druggists, and it is the only one that is safe.

FARMERS ENJOY A PICNIC.

INTERESTING TIME AT THE STATE HOME.

Farmers of Washington and St. Joe Townships Hold Their Annual Gathering.

The fourth annual picnic and institute of the farmers of St. Joe and Washington townships was held on the state farm Wednesday. Although the wind was chilly and the air began to feel like fall weather, there was a very fair attendance.

Governor Mount had been invited and had hoped to be present, but was detained by pressing business of state. Music was furnished by the institute band and there was also singing by children from the district school. A small exhibit of apples, pears and other fruit was an interesting feature, and some mammoth pumpkins and squash were also shown.

Addresses were made by W. F. Davilbiss on "Concerning Soil Moisture," by J. E. Reichelderfer on "Potato Culture," by Mrs. DeVilbiss on "Education on the Farm," by Dr. Buchanan on "Let Us Think," by Alexander Johnson on "Birds and Trees."

The usual basket picnic dinner occurred at noon and the city visitors were feasted with fried chicken, cakes, pies and other good things.

After lunch the wagons drove to the state brick yard, which was in full operation, and the visitors were interested in seeing the feeble minded boys making brick at the rate of nearly 4,000 per hour.

The day was a very enjoyable one and everybody seemed to have a good time.

Following are the awards made by the prize committee:

George Thumm, first on potatoes, first on apples.

W. F. DeVilbiss, first on pears and first on peaches.

H. E. Wiese, second on corn, second on pears, second on apples.

John Gillie, first on corn, first on pumpkins.

James Gillie, first on squash.

George Geoglein, first on oats.

Morris Wykert, second on potatoes, second on oats.

L. Drake, first on wheat.

The committee of arrangements was composed of George Thumm, chairman; W. E. Reichelderfer, treasurer; Mrs. L. Drake, secretary. Resolutions of thanks were adopted to Superintendent Johnson and Mr. Reichelderfer for the courtesies extended to the visitors.

The institute is controlled by a committee elected annually. The following officers were chosen for next year:

Chairman—J. E. Reichelderfer.

Treasurer—James Gillie.

Secretary—Geo. Thumm.

Although one-half of the rubber product of the forests along the Amazon goes to the United States, most of the steamers, wharves and banking houses in the region belong to the English.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh of cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

A VITAL QUESTION

Asked by Hundreds of Fort Wayne People—A Citizen Answered It.

Our citizens who have been entrapped into reading an innocent looking piece of newspaper composition that turned out to be a cleverly worded introduction to some proprietary medicine advertisements always stop the perusal of it when they discover the fraud, some with impatience, some wowing mentally they won't be fooled again. Others readers who are honestly searching for a remedy advertised in their daily papers drop onto one and invariably the first question is, can this be true? This leads to a more important one, why don't they publish local testimony instead of forever asking us to believe statements of some one whom we are not sure even exists? Carefully read the following and see if it does not fill the bill:

Mrs. E. Conklin, of 41 Miner street, says: "I did not have much backache, but there were other symptoms of kidney complaint which were annoying and distressing. It is not necessary to speak of the misery they caused me, as anyone who has ever had kidney disorders can perfectly understand what I suffered. I noticed one day an article in the paper about Doan's Kidney Pills, so the first time I went down street I called at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store and got a box. I took them as directed and I am pleased to state they did me a great deal of good. Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy that can be depended upon to do all that is claimed for them."

WILL ADVISE DISCHARGE.

Referee Chapin tells The Sentinel that he will recommend the final discharge of David W. Bitner from his indebtedness under the bankruptcy act. The opposition to the discharge was unable to establish that Mr. Bitner had withheld any property from the assets of his bankrupt estate, and the ruling of the referee is made in accordance with this opinion.

Mrs. Lillian Brysland has left for her home at Seattle, Wash., after a visit of three months with friends in the city.

ANSWER TO MR. HURST.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 27, 1899.
The Clerks' union of the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, in refutation of the statements made by the firm of A. K. Hurst & Company, proprietors of the Globe clothing house, do submit the statement of the clothing dealers themselves, who signed the former agreement referred to in said article, and submit it to the public.

THE RETAIL CLOTHING CLERKS' UNION NO. 10.

George Bourie, President.
Chas. Neireiter, Secretary.
We, the undersigned, clothing dealers and gents' furnishers of the city of Fort Wayne, do hereby certify that the agreement heretofore signed by us, wherein we agreed with the Retail Clerks' union No. 10, to close our respective places of business, was signed by us not for one year, but for an indefinite period of time.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Public:
The Retail Clerks' Union No. 10 submit for your consideration the following facts in refutation of the misstatements made by A. K. Hurst & Company, of the Globe clothing house.

It seems that Mr. Hurst is deeply grieved to be compelled to enter into a controversy with the Retail Clerks' union. Why should he not feel so, surrounded as he is with clothing dealers, all of whom close at 6 o'clock and live up to their agreement? We think he should feel more than grieved. He should be heartily ashamed of himself. The plea of Mr. Hurst is a plea showing that he is searching in the dark for a technical reason for violating his agreement. We know that other clothing dealers and gents' furnishers close their respective places of business at 6 o'clock. He also knows that he does not. He further knows that he did sign an agreement to close and that that agreement was not for a specific time. Even if that agreement does not exist (but it does), he ought to be honorable enough to close his store when he sees all of his competitors do so. There is nothing but a self-serving selfishness that keeps the doors of the Globe clothing house open after 6 o'clock. Suppose, for the sake of argument, Mr. Hurst reserved the right to withdraw his name at the expiration of one year. If he did so, so did all the other dealers. Yet, no other dealer, in the face of public sentiment, has the temerity to keep open. In a nut shell, all other dealers of any importance close. The Globe does not.

What has the honorable mayor to do with the closing of the Globe? He is neither a clerk, and we think, a patron of that store. If such an agreement is not in existence Mr. Hurst knows why; therefore his bluff about closing at 6 o'clock if it is produced. If the agreement does exist and Mr. Hurst will close his doors at 6 o'clock for one year if we produce to his satisfaction, why not like a good citizen close without an agreement, as other merchants do?

Under the plea of keeping open after 6 o'clock for the benefit of labor Mr. Hurst tries to hide his selfishness. Labor resents the imputation and we know will not patronize a concern opposing them.

Concluding, we challenge the Globe clothing firm to publish the wages paid their employees. Not what Mr. Hurst may from now on increase their weekly income to, but what he paid up to and including last Saturday evening. Also, how much of an increase he pays his clerks now over and above what he paid them before violating his agreement. As far as pertains to the beneficent (?) offer made the Clerks' union, we would rather see him apply that to the payment of his creditors in full. We need no charity. We are not beggars.
